

Literature Ireland & Tyrone Guthrie Centre

Spanish Literary Translator in Residence

Literature Ireland seeks applications from literary translators from Spain for a residential bursary in Ireland from 20 May – 8 June 2020.

The bursary will be awarded to a practising literary translator who is working on the translation into Spanish of a work of contemporary Irish literature.

Travel, living expenses and accommodation costs will be covered by Literature Ireland. The successful candidate will be asked to work on their translation-in-progress, to immerse themselves in Ireland's rich cultural life and to familiarise themselves fully with trends in contemporary Irish literature.

Applications should include:

- an outline project proposal;
- current curriculum vitae and two references (including one from a publishing house located in Spain);
- proof that the applicant holds a publishing contract for the translation of a work of contemporary Irish literature into Spanish;
- a sample of the translation-in-progress (approximately 1,000 words of the source text, plus a draft translation).

For further information, please email info@literatureireland.com. Applications should be submitted to this email address by 5 p.m. on Friday, 20th March 2020.
